

KEEP SHOWING UP.

They're still growing up.

THE POWER
OF CHOICE

Keep the conversation going about underage use

The school year is coming to end, but that's no reason to stop having important discussions. In fact, summer is a great time to continue your conversations! Now that they have extra free-time, you can take the opportunity to build stronger connections with your child. Establish an open line of communication about alcohol use early to help them feel supported in their choice to remain alcohol-free
